

☑ Håfa Adai Pledge Challenge List:

Host a beach clean up/island beautification project

Encourage replacing common English responses like, "Yes, no, and thank you" with CHamoru responses such as "Hunggan, Ahe, and Si Yu'os Ma'ase"

Hunggan

Ahe

Si Yu'os Ma'ase'

Host Håfa Adai Fridays at the office

- Encourage employees to wear island attire, island accessories (Flower in hair, sinahi, shell earrings, etc)
- CHamoru pot luck

Decorate the office with CHamoru/island decor

Celebrate employee birthdays by presenting them with a lei or mwar-mwar

Team building event:
 Cultural dance party /
 Weaving activity / Cooking tutorial

Practice respecting the land by

- Starting a recycling system in the office
- Planting local flowers/trees outside of the office

Play CHamoru/local music in the office lobby

Create a CHamorro-themed lounge area for employees during break times

- Include island-themed decor
- Play local music
- Stock with local treats (Roskette, CHamorro Donuts, Ahu, etc)
- Include local publications for employees to read

Team building activity - Plan a hike and enjoy Guam's natural beauty

- As a cultural practice, begin hike by asking permission from our ancestors
- Take time to learn about the history of the hike site

Name your conference rooms or floors after Guam locations or CHamoru words

Have a business lunch at a locally-owned restaurant

- Order in for a team meal from a locally-owned food truck/business

