FAQ for EMPLOYERS

Hagåtña, Guam – The Guam Department of Labor (GDOL) will stand up the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) Program, and the Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) Program that will assist thousands of individuals whose jobs have been impacted by the 2019 Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19). Here are the answers to common questions by employers about the assistance programs as they pertain to Guam.

Q: What is Pandemic Unemployment Assistance?
A: The Governor signed an agreement with the United States Department of Labor (USDOL), to establish the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) program in Guam. It is part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act of 2020.
The PUA program provides temporary benefits to individuals whose employment or self-employment has been lost or interrupted as a direct result of COVID-19. Direct result means loss of employment or self-employment because of a reason directly related to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Q: How much are the PUA benefits?
A: The PUA program, in general, provides up to 39 weeks of unemployment benefits. Guam's PUA Weekly Benefit Amount (WBA) is $345 a week.
Employees who have been laid off or furloughed due to COVID-19 qualify for the full amount. Employees still working but making less than $345 a week qualify for PUA minus their wages. Those making $345 or more do not qualify for PUA.

Q: What is Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation?
A: Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) is an emergency program designed to increase unemployment benefits for millions of Americans, including Guamanians, affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.
Under the FPUC, eligible people will get an extra $600 in federal benefits each week from the start of April until July 31, 2020.
An individual is eligible for the full $600 weekly payment if the individual receives one dollar ($1) or more in PUA.

Q: As an employer, what is required of me if I have displaced employees, or workers with reduced wages due to COVID-19?

Lou Leon Guerrero's Executive Order No. 2020-07, all employers and business owners who have displaced workers are required to register on the labor department’s virtual one-stop system, hi-reguam.com. Q: What if my employee quits or refuses to come back to work in order to receive the benefit?
A: Quitting work without good cause to obtain additional benefits under the CARES Act qualifies as fraud unless it’s for one of the COVID-19 related reasons listed in the CARES Act. If an individual has obtained these benefits through fraud, the individual is ineligible for any additional benefit payments, must pay back the benefits, and is subject to criminal prosecution. States are expected to enforce these provisions.

Q: If an employee refuses to work, or return to work, due to a general fear of exposure to the coronavirus, is he or she still eligible for PUA?
A: To qualify for PUA, the individual must be unemployed, partially unemployed, or unable or unavailable to work because of a COVID-19 related reason listed in the CARES Act. An individual who does not go to work due to general concerns about exposure to COVID-19, or refuses to go back in order to collect unemployment benefits, and who does not meet any of the other COVID-19 related criteria for PUA, is not eligible for PUA.

Q: Will the payments be retroactive?
A: Yes. The weekly payments will be retroactive during the weeks individuals qualify.
